Residents urged to air views on council cuts

"I'd like to see councils in our patch work much closer together"

• Cllr Duncan Enright

By Alex Ballinger

A LOCAL council is turning to the public for ideas on its budget setting process as Government funding falls from £1.5million annually to near zero by 2020.

West Oxfordshire District Council (WODC) is preparing its annual budget for 2016/17 - due to be adopted in April - and is calling on residents to voice their opinion.

As well as the Government cuts, district leaders are also concerned about potential changes to the New Homes Bonus scheme, which rewards councils for building houses.

WODC'S cabinet member for resources, Richard Langridge, said: "The Government is also consulting on changes to the New Homes Bonus scheme, which potentially has a large impact on the council finances."

"Our current level of savings is keeping our council tax charge some £30 per annum lower than it would otherwise be."

Cllr Langridge said the New Homes Bonus supported the low council tax, a free garden waste collection and free car parking.

Chancellor of the Exchequer George Osborne announced in his Autumn Statement in November last year a review of the New Homes Bonus, as well as £4.1billion cuts to the Government grants nationwide.

Labour district councillor Duncan Enright said: "The New Homes Bonus affects West Oxfordshire because we're building homes faster than we're getting jobs.

"It's something we're worried about."

The New Homes Bonus contributed £1.12m to the council's budget in 2013/14.

No date has yet been set for the Government consultation on changes to the scheme.

On the Government grant cuts, Cllr Langridge said: "Our previous financial strategy had assumed the Revenue Support Grant would fall to zero by 2020.

"The council planned to deal with this by extending its shared working programme still further, increasing our savings through this route to in excess of £2.5m a year."

Shared working sees the council working with Cheltenham Borough Council, and Cotswold and Forest of Dean district councils to achieve combined savings of £39m across all four local authorities by 2024.

The 2020 Vision programme will see councils share human resources and IT services.

Cllr Enright said to counter cuts he would like to see collaboration between councils in Oxfordshire.

He said: "[The cuts] aren't good news.

"The thing that's difficult for all councils is everybody is getting it in the neck, it's not just the district.

"I'd like to see councils in our patch work much closer together, especially district and county, so we can develop the services for the people we represent."

Families grieve at loss of loved ones

By Loughlan Campbell

TRIBUTES have been released after two Oxfordshire families were left with 'heavy hearts' after road crashes claimed the lives of their loved ones over the festive period.

Geoff Smith, 59, of Bloxham, near Banbury, and Tony Woods, 52, of Marcham, were killed in the collisions on December 30 and New Year's Eve respectively.

Mr Woods, a father-of-three, suffered fatal injuries in a collision with a blue Ford Fiesta on the A415 Marcham Road between the A34 and Marcham at about 9.40pm as he was cycling home.

The decorator was taken to John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, with a serious head injury but died on New Year's Day.

Jim Woods, Tony's cousin, wrote on Facebook: "He passed peacefully on New Year's Day and my aunt Daphne (Tony's mother) has been broken into a million pieces.

"He sustained such a serious head injury that doctors could do nothing for him. Until we meet again, RIP."

Mr Woods has yet to be formally identified by police.

Investigating officer Julie Hunt, of the serious collision investigation unit at Bicester, said: "I would urge anyone travelling between Abingdon and Marcham on the A415 Marcham Road in either direction between 9.25pm and 9.45pm on New Year's Eve who saw a cyclist to come forward."

Mr Smith, a grandfather-of-six, was hit by a reversing Ford Transit Tipper van at about 8am in Middle Aston, near Bicester, as he was walking towards a black Fiat Punto that had gone off the A4260 Oxford Road and overturned.

The driving instructor was taken to John Radcliffe Hospital following the collision but subsequently died from his injuries, while the Fiat driver suffered minor injuries.

Mr Smith's daughter, Helen Adkins, paid tribute to her dad on Facebook.

She wrote: "Today I lost my hero and my idol. My dad tried to help someone in a car accident and got hit himself.

"Geoff Smith you were an inspiration to so many and you will be dearly missed by all. Sleep tight my hero, my inspiration, my guide, my Dad."

She added that she was 'absolutely overwhelmed' by all the messages she had received.

Friend of Mr Smith, Rachel Prew, also wrote: "Just heard the tragic news that a very dear friend of mine, Geoff Smith has died.

"He was becoming like a second father to me."

The grandfather was a keyboard player in a band called Legend with Ms Prew's father.

The driver of the Ford Transit, a 55-year-old man from Bicester, was arrested on suspicion of causing death by dangerous driving.

He has been released on police bail until March 30.

Brookes' project looking set for approval

PLANS for the demolition of a main hall and lecture theatre at Oxford Brookes University and the construction of a replacement and the refurbishment of another building were set for approval at a meeting last night.

Oxford City Council was being recommended by its officers to approve the plans for the site in Gipsy Lane - which would also see changes to the forecourt and car park at the front of the campus - as the Guardian went to press.

In a report on the application, council officer Lisa Green said: "The planning application seeks to improve and integrate the majority of the remaining buildings on the Gipsy Lane campus with the John Henry Brookes development and Abercrombie extension.

"The proposals allow the university to maintain and develop its academic reputation by improving facilities for students and staff and will create an integrated campus, improving the student, staff and visitor experience."

The application aims to improve pedestrian access to the buildings, as well as internal refurbishment of the Sinclair Building and annex to provide a dedicated science and research facility.

A statement submitted by Berman Guedes Stretton architects on behalf of the university said: "Oxford Brookes needs to move towards a student-centred integrated and sustainable campus environment which reinforces the university's identity."

Vice-chancellor of Oxford Brookes, Alistair Fitt, said: "Staff and students benefit greatly from improved campuses and it is important for Oxford Brookes to bring the rest of its estate up to the quality of the award-winning John Henry Brookes Building.

"Members of the local community have also been extremely positive about our improved campuses."

See oxfordshireguardian.co.uk or next week's newspaper for the outcome of last night's meeting.

Work shuts roads

OXFORD: Work on a £14.8million project to build a new heating pipeline between Oxford's John Radcliffe and Churchill hospitals started on Monday.

All Saints Road in Headington will be closed between Latimer Road and Stapleton Road until January 27, and Stapleton Road will be closed in stages between All Saints Road and Old Road from Monday until March 15.

The pipe, called the Hospital Energy Project, is expected to help meet growing demand for heating and hot water at the two sites.

Help sought

OXON: Police are asking the public for help in tracing a man who is wanted on recall to prison after breaching the conditions of his licence.

Andre Parker (pictured), 27, also known as Andre Hurst, was last seen in Banbury town centre on November 8.

Parker, who is 6ft 2in, of medium build and has dark brown cropped hair, has links to Oxford and Banbury.

The public are asked not to approach Parker and call police on 101 if they see or have seen him.

New principal takes over as term starts

ABINGDON and Witney College has this week welcomed its new principal to replace its former boss Teresa Kelly, who stepped down to retire at the end of last term.

Di Batchelor officially took over the role at the college after first joining in 1992 as the head of adult learning.

As the new term started, she said: "This is a very exciting time for the college and I am looking forward to my new role and responsibilities."

She continued: "Together I know we can make the college a successful, vibrant and fulfilling place for both our students and our staff."

College seals £18m deal to take control of city science park

By Loughlan Campbell

AN OXFORD college has taken full control of Oxford Science Park after completing an £18.1m acquisition on Monday.

Magdalen College, which already owned half of the park, announced it had sealed a deal for the other 50 per cent stake in the site from M&G Real Estate,

More than 2,400 people work at the science park at Robert Robinson Avenue, which was set up in 1991 as a 50/50 joint venture between the college and M&G Real Estate.

The college said it would continue to develop the site as a 'long-term property investment' and planned to create an additional 300,000 sq ft of office and laboratory space over the next year, on top of the existing 450,000 sq ft.

The park is home to more than 60 businesses ranging from start-ups to international companies such as IBM and TripAdvisor.

Rory Maw, the college's bursar, said: "This acquisition represents the start of an exciting new phase in the science park's development.

"It is a clear statement of the college's intent to support the growth of Oxford's thriving community of science and technology businesses.

"And, by taking 100 per cent ownership, we will have the flexibility to explore new ways of working together."

Bob Price, leader of Oxford City Council, hailed the acquisition, stating that the purchase could lead to the college looking to build housing on a neighbouring site south of Grenoble Road.

He said: "We have been talking to the college for some time about it and we know that they plan to expand the site to include housing.

"This housing would be available for all but the college would like to have housing to act as a way to help those who work at the centre that wanted to live nearby to the site."

Cllr Price added: "This site has tremendous potential and I am very much looking forward to what the college's next move for the site will be."

PO revamped

ABINGDON: The Post Office in Northcourt Road will be closed for refurbishment on Friday, January 15, from 5.30pm.

The office will reopen on Monday, January 18, at 1pm with a new open plan layout and longer opening hours.

The work is part of the modernisation of 8,000 branches across the country.

Lantern backed

OXFORD: Plans for a glass beacon on top of Oxford's new £440m Westgate Shopping Centre were approved by a committee on Tuesday night.

Oxford City Council's west area planning committee approved the plans for the four-metre high stainless steel lantern and more than 1,000 cycle parking spaces.

Trial date set

WALLINGFORD: A woman is to face trial after pleading not guilty to causing the death of a Wallingford cyclist by driving without due care and attention.

Maria Sutton, 27, of Newlands Way, Cholsey, entered her plea at a hearing at Oxford Crown Court on December 23.

Sutton was charged on September 16 following a collision between a black Kia Cee'd and cyclist Graham Ruecroft, 54, of Nelson Close, on June 5 last year. Dr Ruecroft died at the John Radcliffe Hospital, Oxford, five days later.

The trial is set to begin on June 6 at the same court.

Appeal after officer is hurt in hit-and-run

A POLICE officer sustained severe bruising and grazing after being hit by a van while attending an incident on the Blackbird Leys estate in Oxford on Saturday.

Officers were called to Blackbird Leys Road at about 12.15am following reports that an offender was smashing a parked car with a baseball bat near the mini-roundabout junction with Balfour Road.

On arrival, one of the officers was involved in a collision with a white Vauxhall Combo van while crossing the road, sustaining severe bruising and grazing to his left side. He did not require hospital treatment.

Police have arrested a 39-year-old man from Oxford for driving a vehicle on a road without due care and attention and he has been bailed until March 13.

A man has also been charged in connection with the criminal damage incident.

Investigating officer Sergeant Jack Hawkins said: "I am appealing to anyone who witnessed the collision or may have information as to the identity of the driver or front-seat passenger in the Vauxhall Combo van.

"There were a number of people in the area at the time of both incidents who may have witnessed the collision and the criminal damage."

The van was later recovered in Knolles Road, Cowley, near its junction with Boswell Road.

Firefighters to brave hazards for charities

EYNSHAM firefighters are preparing to face electric shocks, tear gas and freezing water for charity.

The 14-strong team will take on the 12-mile extreme obstacle course Tough Mudder next August in Cirencester, Gloucestershire, to raise money for Cancer Research UK, Oxford's Helen & Douglas House hospice and the Fire Fighters Charity.

It includes crawling through a tear gas-filled tunnel and electrified wires.

Eynsham crew manager Paul Ganderton said: "Most of us agreed to do this before seeing the obstacles, but it's too late to turn back now."

'Bionic eye' used to return mum's sight

By Alex Ballinger

A BLIND woman has had her sight restored in a life-changing 'bionic eye' operation at an Oxford hospital.

Rhian Lewis' story featured on the BBC 'Trust Me I'm a Doctor' programme last night, telling how the 49-year-old woman was fitted with a tiny electronic chip at the back of her retina at the John Radcliffe Hospital in Headington.

The mother-of-two from Cardiff was diagnosed with a disorder that rendered her virtually blind when she was five.

And after Ms Lewis was able to see clearly for the first time following the surgery at the Oxford Eye Hospital in June, she said: "I was just so excited, I was quite teary.

"The enormity of it didn't hit me until I'd actually got home.

"The problem with having no sight is that you also lose your confidence because you lose your mobility."

She added: "It's been maybe eight years that I've had any sort of idea of what my children look like. And I've got friends now where I've got no idea what they look like."

Miss Lewis suffered from retinis pigmentosa, which destroys light sensitive cells in the retina. She was rendered completely blind in her right eye and had virtually no vision in her left.

The BBC2 show filmed Ms Lewis as she was shown a cardboard clock to see if she could tell the time correctly after the surgery.

The procedure saw the wafer-thin chip implanted in the back of Miss Lewis' eye to replace the light sensors.

The 3mm x 3mm chip was developed by German engineering firm Retina Implant AG and funded by the National Institute for Health Research's Invention for Innovation programme.

Miss Lewis is the first patient outside Germany to be implanted with the device and one of six people to take part in the trial at the hospital.

Professor Robert MacLaren, who is leading the trial, said: "For a blind person, having independence is a very important aspect of their vision so if we can give someone enough vision so that they can see where they are in the home, they can then go out, walk to the bus stop and they can see the people around them."

Flooding events

OXON: The first public event about the Oxford Flood Relief Channel and how it will affect the surrounding area will be held on January 19, at Oxford Town Hall.

Concerns had previously been raised about how the flood water being diverted from Oxford would affect areas further downstream.

A further four meetings will be held in Oxford, Abingdon and Kennington from January 20 to 28.

For more details, go to abingdon.gov.uk.

Health line help

OXON: NHS 111 experienced an 'extremely high volume of calls' over last weekend, with up to 1,000 calls an hour.

South Central Ambulance Service has urged people not getting an immediate reply on the health advice line to ring outside of its peak times of mid-morning and early evening.

Recycle your tree

ABINGDON: Residents can recycle their Christmas trees by taking them to Market Place on Saturday where Abingdon Town Council and TVE Hire and Sales have teamed up to woodchip them from 9am to 3pm for woodland pathways.

Charity champion to be honoured for his efforts

By Alex Ballinger

A WANTAGE charity champion is set to be recognised for his 10 years of selfless work in the community at an awards ceremony in London later this month.

Ray Collins, 46, will joined by 32 other people to receive a British Citizen Award on January 28 at the Palace of Westminster.

Over the past decade, Mr Collins has organised hundreds of fundraising events including the Wantage Race for Life and Christmas lunches for elderly people, raising £28,000 in 2015 alone.

Mr Collins said: "I have turned down awards previously, as it's never been about that for me.

"The satisfaction of helping others is enough of a reward for me. It's really nice when someone pats you on the back and says well done."

He added: "I consider myself an ordinary person who likes to help people and get involved in fundraising events.

"Just someone who wants to make a difference, that's how I would sum myself up."

His most recent charity outing saw Mr Collins organise a traditional Christmas dinner for up to 100 elderly and vulnerable people in Wantage after he collected 3,200 donated items of food.

• Nicky Rutter with Ray Collins, and (inset) the British Citizen Awards' Medal of Honour

Nominations for the British Citizen Award are made by members of the public and recipients of the Medal of Honour are chosen by a panel of independent judges.

Mr Collins was nominated by his friend Nicky Rutter, who said: "I have only known Ray for three years, but I have never met anybody so passionate and selfless.

"The money Ray has raised is not to be sniffed at, £28,000 this year alone, but the support of this man in the community is massive."

The awards are supported by the ethical law firm Irwin Mitchell.

Alison Eddy, a regional managing partner at the firm, said: "I personally attended the award ceremony in July and was humbled by the stories that I heard on the day."

She added: "There are so many incredible people doing life-changing things for others and it's great they are being recognised by the British Citizen Awards."

Leisure centre set to celebrate first birthday after success of debut year

THE £9million leisure centre in Blackbird Leys will celebrate its first anniversary later this month.

Now boasting more than 1,000 members, the Leys Pools and Leisure Centre was officially opened on January 24, 2015, with a free weekend which attracted more than 12,000 visitors.

Oxford City Council leader Bob Price said: "It is really pleasing to see how popular the new pool and fitness facilities have been in their first year of operation.

"It is vital that we continue to encourage participation in exercise and sport among all age groups.

"Many new users have been attracted and the quality of the centre and the staff has been widely praised."

According to the council, 412,967 people used the centre between January and November last year.

Wayne Hawkins, of the centre's managing firm Fusion Lifestyle, said: "We will be announcing plans for an anniversary open day soon and we hope anyone who hasn't had a chance to see this great leisure facility will come along."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director James Miller feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 10 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps.

Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service Oxfordshire from their local depots and James is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give James a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Protest targets rise in rail ticket prices

By Alex Ballinger

PROTESTERS gathered at Oxford Railway Station on Monday to rally against the latest increase in rail fares.

Two days earlier, ticket prices across the country had gone up by an average of 1.1 per cent – the smallest increase for six years.

But the campaigners, including Green Party councillors, called for the re-nationalisation of railways and a reduction in ticket prices.

David Williams, leader of the Green Party on Oxfordshire County Council, said: "We cannot hope to fight climate change unless we increase the use of our railways by providing cheaper and better services.

"The Green Party wants our railways re-nationalised and rail ticket prices reduced."

The protest of about 10 people took place at the station from 7am as part of nationwide #EndRailRipOff protests organised by Action for Rail and the Oxford and District Trade Union Council.

According to Action for Rail statistics published on Monday, UK commuters are spending up to six times as much on rail travel as passengers on publicly-owned railways in France, Germany and Spain.

The statistics show the UK has the highest rail fares in Europe.

Rail minister Claire Perry said: "Our plan for passengers is improving journeys for everyone – it's transporting the tickets people buy, how much they pay for them, the trains they sit on, how quickly they arrive and the stations they arrive in.

"We are helping hardworking people with the cost of transport."

Ms Perry said the Government had put an end to inflation-busting increases in regulated fares until 2020, saving the average season ticket holder £425 in this Parliament as ticket prices cannot go up by more than the rate of inflation.

Members of the Oxford and District Trade Union Council distributed postcards at the protest encouraging commuters to write to their MPs.

The cost of a 12-month season ticket for commuters from Oxford to London now stands at £4,832.

New Year's Eve jewellery store raid sparks appeal

POLICE are hunting 11 men after the burglary of a jewellery store in an Oxford shopping centre on New Year's Eve.

Seven of the men gathered in Market Street, off Cornmarket Street, opposite the Clarendon Centre before forcing entry to the mall using what is believed to be a sledgehammer at about 3.45am.

Once inside, they forced entry to Goldsmiths Jewellers and stole an unknown number of watches, before leaving through a rear entrance to the centre in New Inn Hall Street and making off on foot down St Ebbes Street.

The four remaining men split into pairs and went to the opposite end of Queen Street where they fixed steel wire across the road to prevent vehicle access.

Detective Inspector Paul Miller said: "We would like to speak to anyone that may have witnessed this incident or seen anything suspicious in the area at this time.

"We believe there may be some people who took video footage of the burglary and I would ask that they make contact with the police."

The men were seen on CCTV with their faces covered and some holding umbrellas to shield their faces from cameras. A number of them were in high-vis jackets and one was pulling a green wheelie bin.

Debt advice offer

OXFORD: Residents are being offered advice on mortgage, debt and housing options after the Christmas period by Oxford City Council.

Despite higher heating bills and post-Christmas credit card payments, the council said paying mortgages and rent should be a priority.

Those finding it difficult to pay their mortgage can get in touch with the council on 01865 249811.

Councillor Mike Rowley said: "We know the real misery losing your home can bring, and our housing advice team can provide that early advice."

Residents urged to keep eye on river levels

RESIDENTS are being urged to keep an eye on river levels after recent heavy rainfall could cause flooding in the county.

Nine flood alerts were in place across Oxfordshire by the Met Office on Monday and Oxfordshire County Council (OCC) was warning drivers to take care on water-affected roads.

The council said no roads had been closed as a result of the flooding but there were pools of water on many, posing a hazard for drivers.

A flood alert was issued for the River Cherwell from Lower Heyford to Oxford on Saturday and it was spread over to floodplains south of Banbury.

The Environment Agency (EA) said on Monday the river remained high and water could still flow out into some low-lying areas, but added no property was expected to flood.

A road in the village of Islip near Kidlington was reported to be closed due to flooding yesterday.

Today's forecast is partly cloudy with scattered showers tomorrow.

Town council backs option to close centres in budget cuts

By Alex Ballinger

ABINGDON Town Council has backed the idea of closing more than 40 children's centres as part of the county's drive to find £290million in cuts.

However, despite the decision, the town councillors remain individually opposed to the move, especially for Abingdon's own two centres.

The town council discussed its response to Oxfordshire County Council's (OCC) public consultation on its cuts proposals at a meeting on Monday.

At the session of the council's planning, highways and consultations committee, members of the public spoke of the help they had received from the centres, including with breastfeeding and escaping abusive relationships.

The town council voted in support of option one in the consultation, which would see the closure of all the county's 44 children's centres and their replacement by larger hubs in Oxford (three), Banbury, Bicester, Witney, Abingdon and Didcot. The move would save the county £8m annually.

The other two options in the consultation were for eight centres with limited universal services, and for six centres with £1m given annually to the voluntary sector for outreach work.

Town councillor Samantha Bowring, who attended the meeting as a concerned local representative, said: "I would have like them to say something stronger.

"I do understand they need to make savings, but cutting early intervention services will cost more in the long run.

"If you cut these services, you're just handing down extra costs to future administrations."

Cllr Bowring said the Liberal Democrat group was considering proposals to increase efficiency on the town council in a bid to free up money that could be used help keep the town's centres open.

She said the idea would be put to the public to decide which services would be a priority.

Committee chair Mike Badcock said each councillor would submit their own response to the consultation.

He said: "The council are unanimously in support of the retention of the children's centres. We wanted to make sure everyone had the chance to comment on the proposal.

"I really do sympathise with [OCC leader] Ian Hudspeth. There comes a time after you're elected when you have to make horrible decisions."

The proposed children's centre closures would form part of the county's attempts to save £290m by 2018 due to cuts from the Government.

Abingdon has two children's centres in Northcourt Road in the north of the town and Caldecott Chase in the south.

The centres offer a variety of services including play days, parenting courses and mental health support.

Mayor of Abingdon Helen Pighills said: "I think it's a really bad idea to even think of closing them. The problems will come up somewhere else."

OCC's public consultation on the cuts closes on Sunday.

Tributes paid by leader to 'kind' former county council chairman

THE leader of Oxfordshire County Council Ian Hudspeth has paid tribute to former council chairman Don Seale, who passed away on Christmas Day.

Councillor Seale was a former cabinet member on the council and served from 1997 to 2013, representing both the Burford and Bampton divisions.

Mr Hudspeth said: "Don was a practical, intelligent man with an abundance of common sense.

"He could give the first impression of being stern but was, in fact, a kind, thoughtful and polite gentleman.

"He also had a dry wit that shone through and he gave sterling service to the council in a range of positions to his constituents in West Oxfordshire.

"He was respected across the political divide and will be remembered fondly by officers and councillors alike. Our thoughts are with Don's family at this difficult time."

Mr Seale served in the cabinet from 2001 to 2007, overseeing the portfolios for community care, health, social services, adult learning and cultural services.

He was vice-chairman of the council in 2011/12 and became chairman in 2012/13, leading up to the 2013 elections when he stepped down as a county councillor.

During his time as a councillor he served on seven committees, notably the adult services scrutiny committee on which he was chairman.

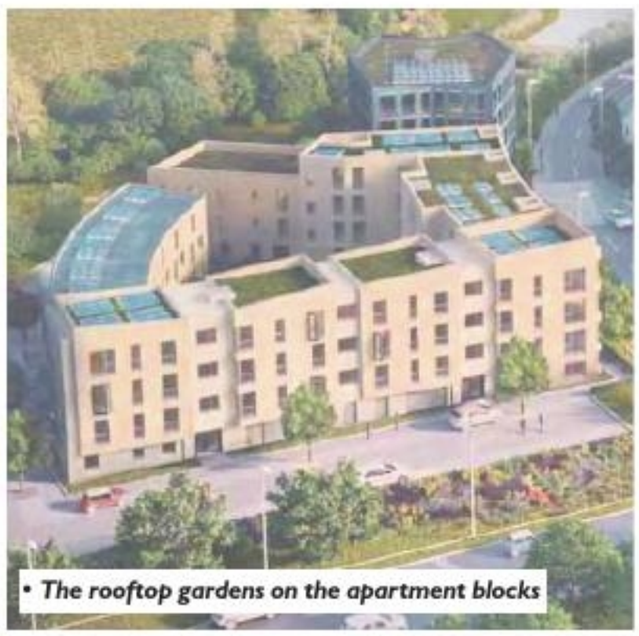
Barton Park home designs are uncovered

• The masterplan for the first phase of homes



• The rooftop gardens on the apartment blocks

• Drawings of the homes

• A design of the flats incorporating green spaces

By Loughlan Campbell

THE designs of the first homes on Oxford's biggest housing estate for decades have finally been revealed after years of planning.

They are for the 885-home Barton Park development due to be built to the west of the city's Barton estate, and also include a 315-pupil primary school and a community hub.

Essex-based housing developer Hill Ltd unveiled the designs last month after the firm submitted final plans for the first phase to Oxford City Council on December 17.

Work on the £53million three-phase development is due to begin with the digging of foundations in June, and is likely to be completed by 2025.

Roy Darke, chairman of the council's east area planning committee - which will make the decision whether building can start by March - called the designs 'very good'.

Cllr Darke said: "These plans have been very well thought out by the developers and it's clear that they've taken on residents' suggestions from the consultations as the designs are very good."

Public exhibitions of the initial designs of the homes were held at Barton Neighbourhood Centre in Underhill Circus and at Northway Community Centre in Dora Carr Close in May and July.

The designs include rooftop gardens, views of green space and 'waterfront villas'.

The 237 homes due to be built in the first phase will include 95 affordable council-owned homes, ranging from three- to-five bedroom houses and blocks of flats.

Cllr Darke aired his encouragement for the mix of social housing on the development, stating: "It's a good proposal as it will prevent segregation amongst the community and that will be a big benefit to residents living there."

The construction of an access road from the estate to the A40 northern bypass began in May last year.

On the feedback from residents attending the exhibitions, Hill stated it had received 'lots of encouraging comments' and 'positive feedback' on the landscape proposals.

The planning statement from Hill said: "Barton Park represents a once in a generation opportunity to deliver a wide range of much-needed housing in Oxford and help contribute to the regeneration of Barton and north Oxford."

Fire crew back from helping flooding victims in the north

SEVEN Oxfordshire firefighters who helped battle the devastating floods in the north of England last month returned home on New Year's Eve.

The Banbury-based team was deployed to York for three days to help with pumping water from a water-pumping station which had suffered a loss of power.

The firefighters got to work to help with the flooding in the city after first attending a briefing meeting.

Station manager Mark Ames, who led the team, said: "We were only too pleased to help out and very proud to represent Oxfordshire in the nationwide response to the emergency in the north.

"In the past, when we have suffered from flooding, our county has benefited from help and support from other areas and it was very gratifying to be able to give something back and do our bit."

Area manager John Lloyd said: "Our crews have been trained for situations like this and will now have the opportunity to use these skills for the benefit of the community."

More than 7,300 homes were flooded across the north of England as river levels reached record highs from last month until last week.

Trio told to pay or face more jail time

By Loughlan Campbell

THREE Oxfordshire men jailed for drug offences have been ordered to pay almost £500,000 or face a longer prison sentence.

Brothers Patrick Gray, 38, of Radford Close, Oxford, and Richard Gray, 26, of Stenter Rise, Witney, along with Ryan Davies, 34, of Kelburne Road, Oxford, received confiscation orders in a hearing at Oxford Crown Court last month.

The Gray brothers had pleaded guilty to conspiracy to supply class-A drugs at the same court, with Patrick Gray sentenced to five years and four months' imprisonment and Richard Gray given four years and six months' imprisonment on April 2 at Oxford Crown Court last year.

Davies was found guilty of conspiracy to supply cocaine to another between August and October in 2013 and was sentenced to 10 years' imprisonment on March 23 last year at the same court.

And now Patrick and Richard Gray and Davies each have three months to pay £259,776.90, £106,756.66 and £102,253.44 respectively, or they will face an extension to their sentences.

Patrick Gray faces a two-year extension, while Richard Gray and Davies both face a one-year extension to their sentence.

At the time of going to print, Thames Valley Police could not confirm whether the sentences would run consecutively or concurrently. If concurrent, it would be served at the same time, but, if consecutive, after the other term had finished.

The Gray brothers were seen by police driving to locations near Thrupp Lane, Littleworth, near Wheatley, in February 2015, where they had hidden crack cocaine and heroin in a field.

Wraps of cocaine and heroine with an estimated street value of £12,000-plus were recovered.

Davies' sentencing followed a police investigation into organised drug supply in the Oxford area between early 2013 and early 2014 - Operation Strix.

He was sentenced in addition to eight other men, who between them were given more than 80 years' imprisonment time between March 22 and 23.

They were sentenced in connection with the seizure of 14kg of cocaine and 7kg of heroin, with an estimated street value of £24m.

Davies was arrested on March 25, 2014 after officers executed a warrant at a garage he had rented in October 2013, and discovered mixing agent, equipment and packaging associated with significant drugs supply.

Phillip Croxson, a Thames Valley Police financial investigator, said: "These substantial confiscation orders show the severe consequences of engaging in a criminal lifestyle.

"Both Patrick and Richard Gray are subject to restraining orders which will have the effect of freezing their assets.

"Patrick Gray owns three properties, which will all have to be sold to satisfy his confiscation order."

"Ryan Davies is subject to a restraint order, which freezes his assets including two properties owned by him, and will now have to be sold to satisfy the order."

Woman attacked

OXFORD: A woman was pushed over twice during an argument with a man in Oxford city centre.

The victim, who was in her early 20s, was arguing with the man in the rear yard of Thirst Bar in Park End Street on December 20 at about 1.40am.

She was taken to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital where she was treated for injuries to her wrist.

The offender is described as being white, 6ft 2in tall, of broad build, with long dark hair tied up at the back, a dark beard, and wearing a multi-coloured T-shirt and dark trousers.

Five honoured

OXFORD: Five members of Oxford University have been recognised on the New Year Honours list.

Professor Christopher Bulstrode was awarded a CBE for services to humanitarian medicine, Professor Keith Willett was given a CBE for services to the NHS and Professor Linda McDowell was appointed CBE for services to geography and higher education.

Also recognised was Ms Fran Bennett who received an OBE for services to social science, and the Revd Canon Brian Mountford who was given an MBE for services to ecclesiastical history.

Man attacked

OXFORD: A 50-year-old man was attacked on Sunday, December 27, when a cyclist deliberately rode into him and then punched him in the face.

The assault took place at about 6.30pm in Littlemore Park between Oxford Road and Kempson Crescent.

The victim fell to the ground, hitting his head, and was taken to Oxford's John Radcliffe Hospital where he was treated for injuries to his head and leg.

The offender is described as being a white man in his late 20s to early 30s, wearing a white peaked cap and riding a bike which is believed to have been yellow.

Contact police on 101 or Crimestoppers on 0800 555111 with information.

Horse rescued

NETHER WORTON: A horse had to be rescued from a ditch on a farm by firefighters on Boxing Day.

The fire service was called at 2.45pm to the farm in Nether Worton, near Enstone, and on arrival found the horse trapped in the muddy ditch.

Specialist large animal rescue equipment was used during the operation.

The owner said the horse had been frightened by something, which caused it to go into the ditch and get stuck.

Brookes features high on table of student cheaters

By Alex Ballinger

OXFORD Brookes University had the fifth-highest number of cheating students in the country between 2012 and 2015, it has been revealed.

Data obtained by The Times newspaper using Freedom of Information (FOI) requests showed 1,711 Brookes students were caught cheating during the three-year period.

FOI requests submitted to 129 UK universities also found Oxford University caught 109 cheaters in the same period.

Oxford Brookes spokesperson Rachael Lee said: "We take very seriously our responsibility to identify students who have cheated.

"If a student is found to have cheated, they will be given an appropriate penalty according to the infringement, even if that penalty is a warning."

Almost 50,000 students were caught cheating across the country in the past three years, with only one per cent (362) dismissed from their institution after being found guilty.

University	Number of cheating cases
1. Kent	1,947
2. Westminster	1,933
3. East London	1,828
4. Sheffield Hallam	1,740
5. Oxford Brookes	1,711

The figures also suggest non-EU students were the most likely to cheat.

Oxford University spokesperson Stephen Rouse said: "Without knowing how other institutions define academic misconduct and cheating, it is difficult to draw any firm conclusions from a comparison of the numbers provided.

"However, Oxford University is confident that its own processes for identifying, investigating and holding students to account for academic misconduct are thorough and rigorous."

Mr Rouse added: "The close supervision of students through Oxford's intensive teaching system makes it particularly difficult for students to cheat by, for example, passing off the work of others as their own.

"The university also employs sophisticated software to detect plagiarism in submitted examination work."

Duo jailed for intent to supply

TWO men have been jailed after they were convicted of possessing heroin when police in Didcot stopped them in October.

Both from St Leonards-on-Sea in East Sussex, Luke Fitzgerald, 26, of Marline Ave, and Christopher Walsh, 29, of Blackman Ave, pleaded guilty on December 15 at Oxford Crown Court to one count each of possession with intent to supply a class-A drug.

Both were sentenced on the same day, with Fitzgerald sentenced to three years and four months' imprisonment and ordered to pay £900 for criminal court costs and a £120 victim surcharge.

Walsh was sentenced to four years and eight months' imprisonment and ordered to pay the same costs and victim surcharge.

The two offenders were stopped by police on October 14 at about 6.40pm by police on the A4130 in Didcot, where they were found to be in possession of a large amount of heroin and were arrested.

They were both subsequently charged with the offence on October 15.

Investigating officer, Det Con Francesca Griffin of Abingdon Force CID, said: "Drugs ruin people's lives and I am pleased with this sentence."

She continued: "It sends a clear message that possessing drugs with the intention to supply will not be tolerated."

Competition

WIN tickets to the unmissable London Classic Car Show

A spectacular new international classic car show took the country by storm last January – now it's back even bigger and even better than ever before. And you could be there, too, as we have five pairs of Sunday tickets to giveaway in this very special promotion.

Staged at the ultra-modern ExCeL exhibition centre in Docklands from 18-21 February 2016, the London Classic Car is the capital's biggest and best celebration of automotive history.

Crammed with innovative features, mouth-watering classic cars plus a star-studded list of celebrity visitors, the inaugural show was such a resounding success that the follow-up will be nearly twice as big.

The event's centrepiece is the 'The Grand Avenue', a central boulevard along which many iconic classics are driven. Everything from genuine Formula 1 Grand Prix racers to some of the most sought-after supercars from yesteryear take to the high-octane catwalk allowing visitors to see and hear their favourites in action. For 2016, The Grand Avenue will be even grander with a significant increase in track distance.

Closing date: Friday, February 5

Another of the eye-catching additions for 2016 is an entire new hall dedicated to prestige and performance classics with privately owned examples representing the country's 25 leading car clubs helping to create an entire show within a show. Visitors, too, will be treated to period entertainment to continue the hall's retro vibe.

Tickets are now available from the official show website: www.thelondonclassiccarshow.co.uk. Adult admittance – if tickets are purchased in advance – is priced at just £23.

WIN TICKETS!

We have 5 pairs of tickets to this great show and to be in with a chance of winning one all you have to do is answer this simple question:

Q: Where will the London Classic Car Show be staged?

AMAZING OFFERS IN OUR NEW TOY DEPARTMENT

New year, new home... with care and support available when you need it

Typical Village Suite at Richmond Letcombe Regis

With the New Year being a time for reflection, many elderly homeowners and their families will have realised over Christmas that perhaps they need some extra help and a smaller, more manageable home. Although it's always a very emotional decision to sell the family home and downsize, chosen carefully, this next step can be a hugely positive experience, providing freedom from responsibilities and a great new lifestyle.

When it comes to elderly care and housing, there's a vast array of different options available. Retirement villages, such as the new Richmond Witney which is due to open this year, are becoming the choice of many as they provide everything you could wish for within one setting, from independent and assisted living through to 24-hour nursing and dementia care. They also include superb central facilities and luxury accommodation.

For those who need a helping hand but not the 24-hour care a care home provides, Assisted Living which is sometimes referred to as extra care, is becoming more and more popular.

For those who need a helping hand but not the 24-hour care a care home provides, Assisted Living which is sometimes referred to as extra care, is becoming more and more popular. At Richmond Witney their Assisted Living, which is provided in their Village Suites, means buying your very own apartment along with an 'independent living' package which takes away the daily chores, allowing people more time to enjoy the things they prefer to do. It also means being surrounded by like-minded people with lots going on, but still with the security of owning your own home. When families visit, they can enjoy quality time with their relatives, happy in the knowledge that their loved ones are getting all the help and support they need. Their 'independent living' package includes all meals, a daily housekeeping service, laundry and utility costs.

David Beckett, whose parents live in a Richmond Village, says that the Village Suite which they moved to has not only improved their live, but also his. "It all started seven years ago when I moved my parents next door to us. Because they were getting old I wanted to be able to keep an eye on them. After five years my mother broke her hip at the age of 90, and recovered very well, but my father was then hospitalised twice and we soon realised they would not be able to manage living next door any longer. "So: he's in hospital and soon to be discharged, and I'm tearing my hair out because I just don't know what to do. I need to find appropriate and continuing care for their different requirements because my mother also has early stage dementia. I looked at several places but either I wasn't happy with what I saw, or there wasn't the full range of care we needed.

"I wanted somewhere where my parents could stay together, and where as things cropped up, everything would be handled professionally and sensitively – Richmond Villages fits the bill perfectly."

"I then discovered Richmond Villages and turning up on a Sunday morning, met a wonderful lady called Claire Fry who took charge straight away, and the weight off my shoulders.

"I wanted somewhere where my parents could stay together, and where as things cropped up, everything would be handled professionally and sensitively – Richmond Villages fits the bill perfectly. I'm kept fully informed and don't feel the need to interfere – and I know they don't want me to! I don't feel the need to try and take over because I've got confidence in what's being done, and my parents are happy and well looked after."

Recent studies, including ones by Aston University and the International Longevity Centre, have proved that moving to a retirement village can benefit the individual in many ways. These results include how retirement villages reduce the sense of isolation and loneliness which is a major problem for many older people living alone; lowering the likelihood of depression; promoting greater independence; decreasing GP visits and unplanned hospital stays and providing a wider choice in planning for later life than would otherwise be available.

Such findings are showing that retirement villages can improve your health and wellbeing as well as offer wonderful accommodation and facilities; the new Richmond Witney will boast a wellness spa with swimming pool and gym, hair and beauty salon, library, IT room, terrace café, quality restaurant and garden bar, beautifully landscaped grounds, bowling green and nature reserve.

So why not give Richmond Witney a call and find out more – you'll be pleasantly surprised!

Comedian doesn't relish fame

YOU might think that being a successful and well-known comedian is something to be proud of - but not according to Stewart Lee.

By James Richings

The funny man is bringing his UK tour 'A Room with a Stew' to the Oxford Playhouse on Friday, January 15, following his previous visit last summer. And the 47-year-old told the Guardian: "The factors that lead to acclaim and success are so random, that it's arrogant and delusional to take any pride in them. In the arts, some terrible people do well, some brilliant people are neglected and it's utterly meaningless."

• Stewart Lee (photo by Rich Hardcastle)

The Oxford University English graduate added: "I am happy that people are coming (to the show) as this enables me to provide for my family from a position of relative, if temporary, security.

"However, I don't take any pride in my apparent acclaim or current success.

"Acclaim is often just a result of investors spending money on methods of manipulating the market so it rarely means anything."

Known for creating comedy show 'Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle' and multi-award winning theatre production 'Jerry Springer: The Opera', Stewart's popularity built up to win him the Hackney Empire New Act of the Year, and a job writing material alongside his good friend Richard Herring for BBC Radio 1 and BBC Radio 4.

But what of the name of his latest show - 'A Room with a Stew'?

"The name of the tour was suggested to me by my friend Alan Moore as a parody of the kind of names I usually give these 'TV work-in-progress' tours, which I do in the run-up to TV series, so I decided to thwart him by actually using it," Stewart said.

And his latest visit to the Beaumont Street promises to be just that – a work in progress – with Stewart performing the same or similar material from his show in the summer.

The comic said: "There are four main subjects in the show: Islamophobia, urine, nationalism and wealth.

"However, at least one of these will probably have been replaced by something else by the time I get to Oxford."

Tickets for the show, which starts at 8pm, cost £21.

'Sunspots' shine on city

IT might be a cold start to January but the Oxford Playhouse will be as hotting up as the play 'Sunspots' arrives on Monday, January 11.

Created by poet and writer Simon Barraclough, the play, which is making its debut at the Beaumont Street theatre, features his 'obsession' with the bright star, in which the actor reveals his opinions whilst describing the sun's almighty power and eventual death to his audience.

"I wrote the book 'Sunspots' and devised the project from scratch, so I was involved from the very beginning", Simon told the Guardian.

"If there is a message to the piece, it is 'Be excited about the Sun!' and by extension be excited about the wonderful world and universe you are part of.

"It is easy to take many inspiring things for granted and music and poetry are brilliant at reigniting dormant feelings and approaching reality in new ways."

In the play, there will be original music by Simon along with fellow musician Oliver Barrett.

"The audience will also hear songs that veer from the poppy to the brooding, and they will see explosive, exciting and moving films. The show is light, funny, dark, moving and thought provoking by turns."

Tickets cost £10 and the show starts at 7.30pm.

Panto to entertain both young and old

• Poppy Jackson (left) as Rapunzel and Annabelle Buckland (right) as Dashing Prince Roland

THE Christmas festivities might be over but the pantomime season is still very much alive, with the story of 'Rapunzel' taking to the stage at Wallingford's Corn Exchange from January 15 to 30.

By James Richings

Performed by the amateur dramatics group Sinodun Players at the Market Place venue, the panto tells the story of how a baby girl is tricked away from her parents at birth, brought up by a wicked witch and held in a tower in the forest to keep her from the attention of handsome princes.

The show's co-director Marilyn Johnstone told the Guardian: "This is a good story with great characters, lively songs and dances, lots of magic and a bright, colourful set.

"Not to mention there are fairies, dancing robins and a witch's cat, all portrayed by our youth group Encore."

Marilyn decided it was time to bring the German fairy tale to the stage in panto form after watching the Disney movie 'Tangled' - which is loosely based on Rapunzel - with her granddaughters.

And after reading through many different Rapunzel scripts to make sure that the audience will get good value for their money, she revealed why she chose the one written by playwright Michael Buchannan-Smart.

"I liked the story and looked at a variety of scripts, but this one by Michael Buchannan-Smart caught my eye because I could include our youth group," Marilyn said.

"Because I like gnomes, fairies and ghosts, we have these in abundance."

Unlike many other seasonal shows, the panto is due to start its run of shows later this month.

Marilyn believes the show will be a big hit with family members of all ages.

"I think parents enjoy pantomime through the eyes of their children and there is a lot of audience participation this year to keep everyone fully involved," she said.

"I also think this is vitally important for children to watch live theatre.

"I have listened to and watched many interviews with actors who say that their first trip to a theatre was to watch a pantomime."

Tickets cost £12 for adults or £6 for under-16s.

Boy's discovery

THE world premiere of a stage adaptation of David Walliams' children's book 'Gangsta Granny' is coming to the New Theatre Oxford, from Tuesday, January 12 to Saturday, January 16.

First published by the comedian in October 2011, the story focuses on a young boy called Ben who hates staying at his granny's every Friday as he finds it boring.

Fed up of eating the same cabbage dish, he searches the house for a biscuit tin only to find that his granny is not so boring after all.

"When I was a child I would spend lots of time with my grandmas," said David, 44.

"Sometimes I would selfishly think spending time with them could be boring but when I got them on a subject like living in London during World War II when bombs were raining down, they would become very animated."

Tickets cost from £19.40 to £24.40.

ADVERTORIAL

Comedy at The Northcourt Abingdon's new comedy venue

New Stand Up Comedy Club Opens with Music Venue in Abingdon

A new stand-up comedy club has opened in Abingdon and is bringing nationally known comedians to their monthly gigs. The next headline act is Ian Stone from 'Mock The Week' and 'Never Mind The Buzzcocks' on BBC2 and who also hosts BT Sport's 'The Football's On' and Absolute Radio's 'Rock & Roll Football'.

Operating under the name 'Comedy at The Northcourt' the next gig is on Friday January 22nd and sees Stone joined on the bill by fellow comedians James Redmond, John Lynn, Dorian Wainwright and Lucas Jolsen. The following months gig on Friday February 19th is to be headlined by the fabulous character of Sol Bernstein created by comedian Steve Jameson who takes on the persona of a New York Jewish empressario in much the same way as Sacha Baron Cohen does with his character Ali G and delivering punch line after punch line.

Comedy at The Northcourt is the brainchild of Bill Fletcher and Mark Cunningham of Abingdon United who together have also already successfully created Music at The Northcourt and have provided Abingdon with its first regular live music venue which is booking internationally and nationally renowned bands.

Cunningham said "I'd already worked with Bill to create a live music venue here at The Northcourt which was something the town has been lacking for a decade or more. So, when he came to me with the idea of introducing a comedy club here too I thought, why not! Out of Bounds had already been operating in Abingdon but their venue closed leaving them with the prospect of shutting down altogether. We immediately felt strongly that Abingdon losing yet another entertainment or facility was unacceptable to us to we pulled out all the stops to get this moving here at The Northcourt"

Full details of the comedy club and the music club's upcoming events can be found on their respective websites www.musicatthenorthcourt.weebly.com and www.northcourtcomedy.weebly.com

Band helps keep music live

• Thickcut in action

SONGS from Led Zeppelin, Thin Lizzy, Lynyrd Skynyrd, Whitesnake and ZZ Top will all feature when covers group Thickcut perform at The Nag's Head in Abingdon on Friday, January 15.

By James Richings

The quintet of Steve Hubert on drums, bassist Paul Hunter, Nigel Mills and Andy Balcam on guitar and singer John McQuaker will entertain the venue's customers with some of the most popular and finest rock songs of all time.

The band's performance at the pub will be their first of 2016, and guitarist Nigel is hoping the band will make a good impression at the event.

"There's nothing quite as uplifting as the feeling of rocking out with a bunch of mates as it's an incredible release and adrenaline rush away from the day to day," he said.

"To do that and then have a bunch of people sing along, dance and cheer is a tremendous thrill.

"And on Saturday, the emphasis is on loads of energy songs most people will know and, most importantly, plenty of opportunities for everyone to sing along and dance."

The band's versions of famous rock tracks from decades past has seen it acquire a strong fan base, with the five friends performing between 20 and 25 gigs annually.

However their love for music has had to partially take a back seat in their lives as all members of Thickcut have day jobs.

But that does not stop the chums from entertaining music enthusiasts across Abingdon and beyond. Nigel hopes that a younger generation of music lovers will see them perform this weekend, as he believes it is vital for the next generation of musicians to experience live music.

"For my generation, music was all about actual people playing actual instruments," he said.

"As brilliant as that can be on record, it's so much more exciting when the musicians are actually playing those pieces live in front of you."

He added: "The band came together in the usual way – an open mic night here, a classified ad there.

"We're really lucky in that as well as being musically compatible, we're really good mates too.

"Also, the WAGs all get on with each other, which makes a big difference!"

The free event starts at 9pm and lasts until midnight.

Sat, Jan 9, 8pm
O2 Academy, Oxford
QUADROPHENIA NIGHT
A club night dedicated to the iconic movie, don't miss live bands, live music from The Atlantics plus Drew Stancall, ex Saxophonist from The Specials/Prince Buster spinning the best in ska, two-tone, 60s, soul and mod!

Mon, Jan 11, 7.30pm
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
SUNPOTS
Sunspots is a poetic, musical, and visual journey from the birth of the Sun, through its long and eventful life, towards its ultimate death.
Is the Sun a god, a man, a woman, or simply a giant ball of hydrogen? Why does it tell fibs about its favourite painters? Is the Sun afraid of dying? Does it get depressed? And what does it really think about us?
Simon Barraclough (poet in residence, Mullard Space Science Laboratory) is your guide on a journey that mixes fact, fiction, horror, humour and joy into an exciting and moving experience getting to know our friendly neighbourhood star.

Tue, Jan 12 – Sat, Jan 16
New Theatre, Oxford
GANGSTA GRANNY
The world premiere of David Walliams' Gangsta Granny is coming to the stage in a national tour starting this winter and running throughout 2016. It is being staged by the Birmingham Stage Company, the acclaimed producers of Horrible Histories.it's Friday night and Ben knows that means only one thing - staying with Granny! There will be cabbage soup, cabbage pie and cabbage cake and Ben knows one thing for sure - it's going to be soooooooo boring! But what Ben doesn't know is that Granny has a secret - and Friday nights are about to get more exciting than he could possibly imagine, as he embarks on the adventure of a lifetime with his very own Gangsta Granny!

Thu, Jan 14 – Fri Jan 15
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
LEARNING HOW TO DIE
Learning How To Die asks what scares us about dying, and how can we use that fear to drive our living actions. Can we find new ways to talk about death? It won't make it any less painful but it might make things easier.
This is a show about death. But don't let that put you off, it's not about being sad. Or about grief. Or pity. This is a show about how an acceptance of mortality can drive a passion for life.

Thu, Jan 14, 7.30pm
The Theatre, Chipping Norton
HOW TO CHANGE THE WORLD
In 1971, a group of friends sail into a nuclear test zone, and their protest captures the world's imagination. Using never before seen archive that brings their extraordinary world to life, How To Change The World is the story of the pioneers who founded Greenpeace and defined the modern green movement.

Fri, Jan 15, 8pm
Oxford Playhouse, Oxford
STEWART LEE
Back by popular demand, Stewart Lee returns to Oxford following previous sell-out visits with fresh material in preparation for his next BBC2 series of Stewart Lee's Comedy Vehicle.
A BAFTA and Comedy Award-winning comedian and writer, in this hilarious show Stewart is on spectacularly funny form as he deftly tries out his brand new material. See it live now weeks ahead of transmission.

Vauxhall's Astra is in the running for 2016 European Car of the Year

VAUXHALL'S all-new Astra has been announced as one of seven nominees for the prestigious 2016 European Car of the Year award, which will be presented on the eve of the Geneva Motor Show on Monday, February 29.

By James Richings

A total of 58 leading motoring journalists from 22 European countries, which will include six journalists from the UK, will have the tough task of whittling a shortlist of seven cars down from a total of 35 entrants, with testing taking place at the notorious Tannistest in Denmark.

The Astra is already on a winning streak, both in Europe and the UK.

In November 2015, the new Astra was announced as the Scottish Car of the Year in Vauxhall's biggest market, and in Europe it recently walked away with the Golden Steering Wheel and SAFETYBEST 2015 awards.

In the UK, the European Car of the Year judges represent a broad range of publications, including The Daily Telegraph, Autocar and CAR magazine.

Since the inception of the award in 1964, Vauxhall has won the award twice, with the Insignia taking the crown in 2009 and the Ampera winning the title three years later.

The new Astra is now on the market, with the car weighing up to 200kg less than the previous model.

The Astra has CO_2 emissions as low as 88g/km and power outputs of up to 200BH.

The car also comes with LED headlights and Vauxhall OnStar, which is Vauxhall's very own personal connectivity system.

Vauxhall OnStar has many features that will benefit its driver, such as if you cannot remember where you have parked your car, it will flash its lights and honk its horn in order to identify where it is for you.

The official fuel consumption figures in mpg (l/100km) for the cars shown are: urban 37.2 (7.6)-65.7 (4.3); extra-urban 57.7 (4.9)-80.7 (3.5); combined 48.7 (5.8)-74.3 (3.8). The official CO_2 emissions are 135-99g/km. EU Directive and Regulation 692/2008 test environment figures. Fuel consumption and CO_2 may vary with driving styles, road conditions and other factors.

Finance provided by Dacia Finance, PO Box 149, Watford WD17 1FJ. Subject to status. Indemnities may be required. UK resident (excludes the Channel Islands). Over 18s. Terms and conditions apply. Offers cannot be used with other schemes or finance offers and are available on featured new vehicles when ordered by 31 March 2016 and registered by 30 June 2016 (excluding Access versions). We may introduce you to other finance providers. We may receive a commission from the finance providers. Offers based on 6000 miles per annum, excess mileage 8p per mile inc VAT. Extended warranty applies to the models shown for up to 5 years or 60,000 miles, whichever comes first, when purchased on Dacia finance deposit contribution scheme (excluding Access versions). The extended warranty prolongs the warranty coverage from the date of first registration and expires on the first of the two limits reached. Warranty offer provides ongoing protection from mechanical and electrical failure after the standard manufacturer's warranty has expired and is valued at £395. The warranty plan is not transferable to another vehicle, but should the vehicle be sold while the warranty plan is still active, the remaining cover transfers to the new owner. Visit shop.dacia.co.uk/ product/5-year-extended-warranty for full terms and conditions.
Deposit contributions shown are available to new Dacia Finance customers, when taking Dacia finance on a new Dacia Sandero, Dacia Sandero Stepway, Dacia Logan MCV or Dacia Duster (excluding Access versions).
Vehicles shown with optional metallic paint at an additional £495.

Subject matters
Wheatley Parish Council (as a relevant body) has submitted proposals to undertake a Neighbourhood Plan. The proposed area follows the parish boundaries of Wheatley and Holton (as of April 2015).

The Neighbourhood Plan is a way for the town or parish council to help shape how their community develops over the coming years. This is not a formal consultation on the neighbourhood plan, merely the identification of the potential area where the plan is to cover.

View the consultation documents
Copies of the Neighbourhood Plan application are available to view at the district council offices (135 Eastern Avenue, Milton Park, Milton, OX14 4SB) Monday – Thursday 9.00 am – 5.00 pm and Friday 9.00 am – 4.30 pm, and Wheatley Parish Council offices (The Merry Bells, High Street, Wheatley OX33 1XP). You can view the documents online by visiting www.southoxon.gov.uk/neighbourhoodplans and clicking on the Wheatley link.

How to respond
We are opening a six week consultation period on the application, running from Monday 11th January to 5.00pm on Monday 22nd February 2016. This is an opportunity to comment on the proposed area.

You can comment using our online consultation system, accessible via the web address above. If you have not already done so, you will need to register to use our system.

Alternatively you can send comments through to planning.policy@southoxon.gov.uk or via post Planning Policy, South Oxfordshire District Council, 135 Eastern Avenue, Milton Park, Milton, OX14 4SB.

The council will use the comments to decide whether the area submitted for the joint plan is suitable or not. Please be aware that all comments received will be made available to the public to view.

U's late surge leads to a thrilling comeback

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD UNITED held their nerve as they came back from 2-1 down to beat Notts County 4-2 in a thriller at Meadow Lane on Saturday.

Michael Appleton's side scored three goals in the last 11 minutes after they fell behind to goals from Jon Stead and Curtis Thompson, despite Liam Sercombe putting United in front with a penalty in the first half.

Alex MacDonald, Callum O'Dowda and Kemar Roofe found the net as the U's stormed on to maintain third place in League Two.

On the stroke of half-time, Sercombe won his spot kick after keeper Roy Carroll came charging out and referee Carl Boyeson pointed to the spot.

The midfielder converted, setting up an action-packed second-half as Stead rose highest to head home an in-swinging free kick past Sam Slocombe on the hour mark.

Thompson then put County in front after lovely link-up play with Stead to blast home in the box on 76 minutes.

However, United soon roared back into the contest with MacDonald converting from close range after an O'Dowda corner was headed into his path from Patrick Hoban three minutes later.

County's erratic defending then led to O'Dowda's goal with Carroll blocking a Roofe effort, before the ball fell to O'Dowda who blasted it into the roof of the net despite the efforts of two County defenders on the line in the 90th minute.

Just a minute later, Roofe finished off County after Hoban played him in down the left and the quick-footed forward turned Hayden Hollis, charged into the area, shrugged off Thompson and unleashed an effort into the bottom corner past Carroll.

The win showed the never-say-die attitude Appleton has instilled in his players and was a fine comeback performance from a side that have their eyes firmly set on promotion.

United play Swansea in the FA Cup on Sunday before facing Millwall in the Johnstones' Paint Trophy South Final next Thursday evening.

Dire Freds are thrashed by rivals Banbury

WANTAGE Town experienced a New Year's humiliation at Banbury United on Saturday as they were thrashed 8-1.

In a crippling result for player-manager Stuart Cattell's side, United went in front with 10 minutes on the clock after Zac McEachran set up Mark Bell to shoot low into the corner.

With five minutes until half-time, it was two for Banbury after Bell fired a free kick into the bottom corner after Wantage's wall could not keep the ball out.

Right at the end of stoppage time, United went further in front after McEachran's header was saved by Ed Cavanagh, but the forward then knocked home the rebound.

George Nash found the net for Banbury just a minute into the second half, unleashing an effort from 25 yards.

Wantage got some reprieve after Aaron Ferris fired in on 57 minutes.

But the home side added another three through Liam Howards from 12 yards out in the 76th minute, with Bell completing his hat-trick and then Ricky Johnson scoring from close range in the final 10 minutes to mark a miserable afternoon for Wantage.

Decision on new City stand to be made

PLANS for a 150-seat spectator stand at Oxford City's stadium at Court Place Farm in Marsh Lane are set to be approved by councillors tonight.

Bosses at the club submitted the plans for the stadium late last year, with the new stand set to boost the number of seats to 500.

This would bring the stadium in line with requirements to compete in the Vanarama National League, City currently play in the division below, National League South.

The club are currently fourth in the division and, in order to meet the requirements for promotion, the club must be able to demonstrate the new capacity to the Football Association (FA) by March 31.

In addition to the 500-seat capacity, they would have to show the potential to increase the ground's overall capacity to 4,000 spectators.

The average attendance for first team matches at the ground is currently 279 spectators.

Council officers said in their report ahead of the meeting: "The proposal is considered to be acceptable in terms of the relevant policies and therefore the east area planning committee is recommended to approve the application."

City are set to take on Concord Rangers on Saturday after their last two fixtures against Maidenhead United and Weston-Super-Mare were postponed.

Brookes rowers aim for Olympic stardom

By Loughlan Campbell

TWO Oxford Brookes University rowers have set their sights on securing an Olympic medal this summer at the Rio Olympics.

Peter Chambers, 25, who rows for Oxford Brookes University Rowing Club, won silver in the lightweight men's four silver with brother Richard, Rob Williams and Chris Bartley at the London 2012 games.

Chambers went on to claim the bronze and silver medals at the first two World Championships of the Rio 2016 Olympiad before settling for ninth place at last year's event in Aiguebelette.

Despite the poor finish it was good enough to qualify Chambers' boat for Rio, though the rower admits it was 'a bit of a mess'.

He said: "It was a bit of a mess from the start last year but we have moved on from that now.

"We have got the boat through to Rio and it is back to a level playing field again now.

"We're all focused on what we want to achieve next year.

"Things have been going well so far in winter training. We are quite a tight knit group in the lightweight squad and there is a lot of competition and quality in there, the standard has really gone up."

The Oxford Brookes' graduate's team came within a second of securing gold in London, with Chambers rowing as part of the Great Britain U23 squad in the run-up to the games.

Also hoping to make it to Rio is current Oxford Brookes Law and Politics student Joel Cassells, who is bidding to grab a place in the GB squad.

The 21-year-old was crowned as World and European lightweight men's pairs champion last year, winning the latter title with Chambers and is regarded as one of the upcoming GB stars.

Cassells said: "Last season was an incredible one for me, I never expected to end up with those accolades but it's an amazing feeling.

He added: "As a team we will all have to fight for a place at the Olympics. There are never any seats with names engraved underneath them and it's that competitive side that makes us a world-class squad."

United grab draw as festive mood gifts Alman respite

STEVE Alman's Abingdon United experienced an upturn in fortunes over the festive period after they followed up a 5-1 win over Milton United by securing a 1-1 draw with Thame United on Saturday.

The home side look fired up for the encounter from the off and with 12 minutes on the clock, George Reid sliced a shot into the bottom corner after a Seth Humphries cross.

Thame looked to find an immediate equaliser and forced Jack Griffiths into making a handful of saves to keep his side ahead.

However Thame got their goal on the half hour mark with Tom Ashworth firing home after a free-kick was headed down into his path.

Abingdon's Conor Ingram fired wide for the home side shortly afterwards following a great run for Reid and in the second half Griffiths managed to toe an effort from Ben Connolly off the line in a Thame attack.

With just 10 minutes to go Thame then blew another shot to secure a winner as Calvin Evans sliced a shot just past the post.

However it was Abingdon who had the chance to have the last say after they were denied by a great save from Steve Clarke in the dying minutes as they bid to grab all three points.

Oxford snatch up Haynes from Villa

OXFORD United Women have signed Aston Villa midfielder Lauren Haynes ahead of the new season.

The Bicester starlet originally began her career in the renowned Arsenal Centre of Excellence and has represented her country at under-15, under-17 and under-19 level, competing in the European Championships.

Comfortable at centre-back, full-back or in central midfield, Haynes only signed for Villa back in March last year.

She said: "I'm excited to be signing for Oxford as I feel it will give me the foundation and settlement I need to progress not only as a footballer but as a coach too.

"I feel the club will give me all the tools needed to ultimately become the best footballer I can be."

The versatile player played 15 times for Villa, who finished just a point above United last season.

Manager Les Taylor said: "Lauren has fantastic experience for one so young and has played at a very high level for most of her career."

The season begins in March.

Millers inflict more misery on Didcot

NORTH Leigh moved to second in the Southern League Division One South & West in a 3-1 derby win over Didcot Town that saw the Railwaymen fall to their third consecutive defeat on Boxing Day.

Goals from Stuart Hole, George Seacole and Callum McNish sealed the win for the Millers, with Adam Learoyd grabbing a consolation goal for the Diddy.

After Diddy keeper Leigh Bedwell kept out a Michael Hopkins effort, the Millers took the lead with Hole heading in from the subsequent corner.

Seacole came on in the second half and sent Leigh further in front on 47 minutes, lobbing Bedwell from 10 yards.

Just before the hour mark, it was three for the Millers as McNish swept the ball past Bedwell from close range.

Didcot rallied and on 71 minutes Learoyd got Didcot's consolation, heading past Foster from Josh Dutton-Black's corner to wrap up the scoring.

Didcot were playing Winchester City last night as the Guardian went to press.

Blues snatch win in the mud against Witney

WITNEY RFC made it seven wins from eight with a 16-12 victory over Windsor in a muddy encounter at Hailey Road.

With seven minutes on the board the Blues suffered a rough start, with Henry Lamb missing a penalty kick to the right of the posts.

But eight minutes later Lamb made amends after a sustained bit of pressure led to Windsor moving offside, and the fly half converted the subsequent penalty for three points.

The Blues then extended their lead on 24 minutes with Lamb kicking through the posts once more when the visitors didn't release after a tackle.

Witney then grabbed the game's first try after the referee gave a penalty try for Windsor collapsing the scrum on the stroke of half-time.

The conversion was true and despite the terrible conditions, Witney managed to secure a 16-0 lead after Lamb kicked another penalty goal on 50 minutes.

This proved to be a turning point in the game as six minutes later Windsor crossed after the Blues defence cracked as Alan Crawshaw went over, with the try then converted.

The visitors snatched another try on 70 minutes after driving over the line.

But the home side managed to contain Windsor until the full time whistle, in a result which lifts them up to third position in the table.

Sport Bites

Milton struggle

FOOTBALL: Milton United got off to a miserable start to the New Year after they were beaten 4-1 at the hands of Brackley Town Saints on Saturday.

In an Oxfordshire derby, Ardley United knocked Oxford City Nomads out of the county's Senior Cup at the third round stage on December 29.

Troy Bryan opened the scoring for Ardley in the first half, before Elias Katsoloudi netted late on in the second half to earn his side the victory.

Stars share points

ICE HOCKEY: Oxford City Stars made the trip home from Essex on Sunday after securing a 3-3 draw with Chelmsford.

Stars' Alan Green gave the visitors the lead early on with Ben Ealey Newman adding a second.

Green then supplied the third as Lukas Zatopek and Anthony Leone added a double for the home side to complete the win.

The Stars lie fifth in the NIHL South 1 table.

Lundstram picked

FOOTBALL: Oxford United's John Lundstram is among the nominations for December player of the month for Sky Bet League Two.

The midfielder's strong form across the month included a 20-yard cracker that he scored in the U's' 3-0 win over Exeter City.

He's up against Portsmouth midfielder Gareth Evans, Wycombe full-back Jason McCarthy and Bristol Rovers striker Matty Taylor for the honour.

The winner of the award will be announced tomorrow.

U's aim to fly against Swans in FA Cup tie

• Danny Hylton will be hoping for a run-out (picture by Steve Daniels)

By Loughlan Campbell

OXFORD UNITED will be hoping the magic of the FA Cup is on their side as they prepare for a sell-out tie against Premier League outfit Swansea City at the Kassam on Saturday.

The final batch of tickets for the much-hyped encounter were sold on Tuesday, with U's fans likely to set a new club FA Cup record gate of about 12,500.

United were rescued in an entertaining encounter at Notts County last Saturday, with late goals from Callum O'Dowda and Kemar Roofe sealing a 4-2 win.

The Yellows' league campaign is still on course for a promotion push, despite a run of only two wins in their last five league games.

However, despite their topsy-turvy form in the league, it is in the cup clashes that the U's have truly excelled as Michael Appleton's men have strutted their way to the Johnstone's Paint Trophy southern final against Millwall, with the first leg taking place next Thursday.

However, Swansea are a very different kind of opposition and will be desperate to give their fans some joy after a horrendous league campaign so far this season.

The Swans come into the encounter after an improved performance in a 2-1 defeat to Manchester United last Saturday, and caretaker manager Alan Curtis will be looking for his second win since taking over at the start of December.

The pivotal decision for Appleton could be whether or not Danny Hylton plays up front for the U's as the energetic forward's harrying style of play could be key to hounding the ball in the Swans' midfield.

Hylton has been an unused substitute for United's last three games but could be given the chance to make his mark in such a big game for Oxford.

In head-to-head meetings between the two sides, Oxford have won one more game than the Swans, with the last U's win coming in August 2003 when goals from Andy Crosby, Julian Alsop and Mark Rawle secured the 3-0 victory.

The last two encounters have resulted in 1-0 Swansea wins, with Kristian O'Leary grabbing the winner for Swansea back in April 2005.

The match is live on BBC Wales and kicks off at midday.

Why not do an Apprenticeship in 2016?

Do you want to start a great career and pick up recognised qualifications at the same time?

Apprentices do real jobs for real employers, meaning you can continue your education, gain essential workplace experience and earn a wage too! The College's apprenticeship success rate for 16-18 year olds is also the highest in the country, with the College placed 1st out of 218 colleges. So there really is no better institution to complete your training with!

On the job you earn a wage from day one and gain experience in your chosen profession. At the same time you will continue your training and education, gaining recognised industry qualifications such as NVQs (QCF) and technical certificates such as BTECs or diplomas.

Apprenticeships are a great first step on the career ladder but the benefits to you don't stop there. You will have real work experience, qualifications and employer references that will set you above the rest when applying for jobs in the future. At the end of your apprenticeship you could progress onto a Higher Apprenticeship (Level 4/5), or even go on into higher education at college or university.

We offer a wide range of Apprenticeships including Accounting, Business Administration, Construction, Engineering, Hairdressing, Horticulture and Social Media for Business. For a full listing visit: www.abingdon-witney.ac.uk/apprenticeships/
